

Deer Management 101: Enhancing Deer Habitat

Saturday, September 11, 2010

Rob & Bessie Welder Wildlife Foundation
7 Miles North of Sinton on U.S. Hwy 77

- 8:30 – 9:00 Registration
- 9:00 – 9:30 Deer nutrient requirements for growth and antler development – Dr. David Hewitt
- 9:30 – 10:00 Deer plants and their nutritional value – Daniel Kuntz
- 10:00-10:15 Break
- 10:15- 10:45 Habitat management to provide quality food resources – Dr. Tim Fulbright
- 10:45 -11:15 Grazing management to benefit deer – Dr. Lynn Drawe
- 11:15 – 11:45 Hunter management – Kirk Feuerbacher

Lunch

- 1:00 – 1:30 Using fire to improve wildlife habitat – Dr. Terry Blankenship
- 1:30 - 3:30 Field – Chemical, Mechanical, and Prescribed Fire
Types of chemicals used, timing, rates, results
Prescribed Fire – summer and winter burns, setup, procedures, results

CEU- 2

Cost - $20.00 – Includes lunch, breaks, and handouts

Registration - Please RSVP by sending name, contact information, and fees to:

Dr. Terry Blankenship
Welder Wildlife Foundation
P.O. Box 1400
Sinton, TX 78387
361-364-2643
tblankenship@welderwildlife.org